Third Annual Ice Cream Social

Review

What a great turn out for the first meeting of the New Year. Forty-two members and guest attended the third annual Ice Cream Social, featuring Ted Drew’s ice cream with all the available topping you can think of to put on top. Here’s a trivia question. What are the sprinkles called that they put on top of ice cream?

Everyone was also introduced to the new officers of Ring One, for the up coming year. All the officers performed along with volunteers Tim Shegitz, Robert Campbell, Henny Shaper, Steve Bender, Harry Monti and Bryan Boyd. You know, that’s why we gather together, to share a great time together and to perform magic for each other. Where else can you see new tricks or try out a new effect and get possible feed back on your presentation to help you improve or modify the effect. I know people are scared to get up in front of the membership and perform wondering if they are good enough or will they mess up. I know this because I used to have the same worries, but I realized if you can perform in front of other magicians then performing in front of the lay audience would be even easier. SOOOOO what are the sprinkles called the put on top of ice cream? Jimmies!

To All Members:

On behalf of the entire Jubilee staff, we would just like to say a BIG thank you for all those who attended and supported the Midwest Magic Jubilee. For those in attendance, you saw one of the BEST conventions of the year. For those who didn't attend, you missed one of BEST conventions that was held in your own back yard. Next year is our 50th anniversary and you don't want to miss this one. There will be many surprises for all. And believe me, they will be surprises. You will have to attend to find out. So start saving your pennies now and get in on the early bird registration and save yourself some extra bucks! Check out the website in about a week for a complete review.

Just go to www.mmjubilee.com.

For all those who helped, THANK YOU! There are way too many names to mention, but you know who you are. Countless hours, a thankless job, and lots of work went into putting this convention together. Next time you see one of the volunteers, give them a praise of thanks!

Sincerely,

The Midwest Magic Jubilee Staff

Congratulations

Todd Ziegler

Todd and his wife are the proud parents of a bouncing baby girl. She was born on Thursday July 28, at 3:27 am; 8 lbs and 20 inches long. They named her Ellen Grace Ziegler. Mom and baby are home now doing extremely well. Congratulations!

Another Successful Jubilee!

The Midwest Magic Jubilee is bigger and better and proved to be one of the best magic conventions in the nation. The St Louis Airport Hilton was the site of the 2005

Midwest Magic Jubilee. It was held August 11-13 in beautiful St. Louis, Missouri. This was one of the best Jubilees St. Louis has had in quite awhile.

The Great Tomsoni & Co

David Williamson & Rocky

Dyslexic Tom Burgoon

Nathan Kranzo and Phillip Kaiser and many many more, several other magic celebrities were also in attendance. Just to name a few...Bill Malone, Don England, Chris Kenner, Homer Liwag, Paul Cummins, Richard Kaufman, Roger Miller, Walter Graham, Andy Dallas, Bill Herz, Michael

on and on. This seems to be the convention where the stars of magic wanted to be. This was a first class event. Also the Jubilee was proud to have 10 past presidents from the IBM and SAM in attendance.

Another testimony of the excellence of the Jubilee.

The Jubilee hosted 3 fantastic evening shows, all of which were open to the public and by the looks of the crowd; St. Louisians know good magic when they see it! The Jubilee also hosted 2 ALL STAR close-up shows with talent that read like a who's who in magic. One of this years highlights was the Jimmy Molinari

Howie Schwarzman

Jeff Lefton

Beginner's Lecture. Jimmy was a student of Ed Marlo and shared his valuable knowledge with anyone who would listen. On top of an outstanding lecture, Jimmy also provided FREE lecture notes to all those who attended as well as repeating the lecture 3 times over the weekend!

Jessica Reed

The dealers' room this year featured 15 dealers from around the country all displaying the latest and greatest magical effects. Add to the above a hospitality get together every night before the shows, stage and close-up contests, 2 ladies events, 11 different lectures, Promo Pictures by Dave Edgar, a great hotel staff, and you have the makings of one of the best conventions of 2005. Next year, the Jubilee celebrates its 50th anniversary and they promise to pull out all the stops to make next year event better!

Duane & Mary Laflin

If you plan on attending just one convention in 2006, make sure it's the Midwest Magic Jubilee in St Louis!

November 2nd Meeting An Evening of Impromptu Magic

The October 5th meeting will be an event to remember. Tim Shegitz and Chuck Levy will demonstrate and discuss the art of Impromptu Magic. Tim will perform and discuss a number of "Prepared" Impromptu Magic effects that are both easy to perform and time tested. One, according to Tim's son, "is guaranteed to pick up chicks". This one you don't want to miss. Everyday objects such as napkins, money, and cards are brought to life with creative patter from a master story teller.

Chuck, performing as Laurence "Nothing Up My Sleeve" will discuss what to do when you are somewhere and someone says "Hey, I heard you are a magician. Show us something." Chuck will describe how to prepare a mini impromptu show with everyday objects found in the home or office.

Anyone wanting to perform their favorite Impromptu Magic effect can contact either Tim at WIZARD5301@aol.com, or Chuck at nums@swbell.net. Or we might have a table with everyday objects and challenge certain magicians to "show us something".

Chuck and Tim will also be providing refreshments for all to enjoy. According to the Ring's Bi-laws, that could be anything from a small bag of chips to a several large pizzas. You will have to come to find out for yourself. Things that make you go Hmmmmm.

50th Anniversary Logo Unveiled!

Registration of the 50th Anniversary of the Midwest Magic Jubilee has begun. Due to the popular demand, the Jubilee has decided on a pricing structure for 2006. The good news is that there are no price increases for the convention. The pricing structure is as follows:

- For those that registered for 2006 during the 2005 convention: $90 Plus Spouses FREE!
- First 75 registrants: $110 Plus Spouses FREE!
- Prior to July 1, 2006: $110, Spouses $30!
- July 1 and after: $125, Spouses $30!

Register now for the best available deal. Online at www.MMJubilee.com. 2006 is already shaping up to be the best yet! If you didn't go in 2005, ask those that did and you will see what you missed.
