Evening of Impromptu Magic

October 5th Meeting

The October 5th meeting will be an event to remember. Tim Shegitz and Chuck Levy will demonstrate and discuss the art of Impromptu Magic. Tim will perform and discuss a number of “Prepared” Impromptu Magic effects that are both easy to perform and time tested. One, according to Tim’s son, “is guaranteed to pick up chicks”. This one you don’t want to miss. Everyday objects such as napkins, money, and cards are brought to life with creative patter from a master storyteller.

Chuck, performing as Laurence “Nothing Up My Sleeve” Levy will discuss what to do when you are somewhere and someone says, “Hey, I heard you’re a magician. Show us something.” Chuck will describe how to prepare a mini impromptu show with everyday objects found in your home or office.

Anyone wanting to perform their favorite Impromptu Magic effect can contact either Tim at WIZARD5301@aol.com, or Chuck at nums@swbell.net. Or we might have a table with everyday objects and challenge certain magicians to “show us something.”

Chuck and Tim will also be providing refreshments for all to enjoy. According to the Ring’s Bi-laws, that could be anything from a small bag of chips to a several large pizzas. You will have to come to find out for yourself. Things that make you go hmmmmmm.

Haunted Hayloft

At

Nestlé's Purina Farms in Gray Summit

It is that time of year again when ghosts and goblins roam free at Purina Farms in Gray

Summit, MO. Make reservations for family-style tricks and treats in Gray Summit. Kids can paint pumpkins, watch cartoons, listen to storytellers, witness magic from Ring One, pet a barnyard full of farm creatures and, of course, crawl around in a creepy hayloft.
Plus it is told that some of St. Louis' greatest magicians will be appearing and disappearing for 4 shows each night! Check the schedule to the left!

Located 45 miles southwest of St. Louis in Gray Summit, Mo., Purina Farms is handy to reach from Interstate 44. Simply turn north at the Gray Summit exit (Exit 253) on Interstate 44, and travel two blocks on Missouri Highway 100. Go left on County Road MM, and the entrance to Purina Farms is one mile on the left.

Harold D Russell

Gold Metal Winner! By Steve Zuehlke

September 8 was officially proclaimed Harold D. Russell Day in St. Louis. This was the day the S.A.M. bestowed its highest honor to one of our own, star of stage, screen, radio and television, Mr. Harold D.
Russell. For those of you who missed this event,

Harold D. Con't

you missed one of the BEST banquets either club has seen in years! This gala black tie affair was held at the Missouri History Museum in beautiful Forest Park. With cocktails and appetizers, followed by a delicious dinner, filled with speeches and compliments about the man, Harold D. After dinner we were treated to a great dessert, compliments of Ann Grice who baked a beautiful bow-tie cake. After the dinner we were escorted to the theater where we enjoyed a fantastic evening of magic.

Michael Douglas

The show started with host Karl Grice showing a short bio of Harold D.'s performing career. Lots of old photos, stills, movie clips, etc., made this short a delight to watch and brought back many fond memories. Following the movie we were treated to a show of all shows. On the bill that evening were Steve Corbitt, Chris Rayman, Al Stanger, Chris Korn, Tom Burgoon, Hiawatha, and Mike Douglas. Everyone seemed to love the performances! All this would have not have been possible if not for the graciousness of hosts Karl and Ann Grice. These two TOTALLY outdid themselves. Also thanks to the family of Harold D. who were attendance. They should be very proud of Harold D. Russell for he is truly one of the greats of our art.

2005 Ring One Presidential Banquet

by Steve Zuehlke

Incoming President Terry Richison & Outgoing President Keith Smith

September 9th was the date for this years annual Presidents Banquet. For those who did not attend, you missed one of the best of the past few years. On hand were territorial VP Dennis Burks, International President Roger Miller as well as past I.B.M.

Tim Shegitz & Ray Belz

President Jim Nagel and past S.A.M. presidents, John Apperson and Harry Monti. Prior to dinner, we were treated to the close-up magic of Tim Shegitz and John Davit. Tim was the winner of this year's close-up contest and did a command performance of his award-winning act. Along with Tim was member John Davit. John has been a long-time Ring favorite and recently just received his Order of Merlin pin. Everyone loved these two performers.

Following a great dinner, we installed our new slate of officers and had an award presentation ceremony. This year's close-up contest winners were: Tim Shegitz – First Place, Mike Sheehan – Second Place, Robert Campbell – Third Place. This years stage contest winners were Ben Stuparits - First Place, Larry Minth – Second Place, and Brian Boyd – Third Place. Outgoing president Keith Smith handed out several presidential citations, recognized the past Youthsayer winners, Order of Merlin recipients, and the Theper award winners. Before Keith could leave the stage and turn over the reins to incoming president Terry Richison, Keith was presented the Harold Theper Award. This award was last presented in 1997. Only when one has gone above and beyond the call of duty and Keith certainly fits that criteria.

Big Daddy Cool – John Pyka

After the awards ceremony, came the stage show. This year was something to remember. Emceed by Tim Shegitz, Ring One along with Nashville president Gary Hayes decided to "Link the Rings." Gary was kind enough to send us three stellar performers. On the bill and opening was John (Big Daddy Cool) Pyka. John combined acting, music, and dance with some innovative dancing cane work and giant color-changing knives to connect with the audience. Up next was Tom Gibson. Tom did a talk act and kept the audience in stitches. His twist on the Torn and Restored Newspaper was a big hit. And finally closing the show was Jason Michaels.

Jason Michaels

Jason did a great job interacting with the audience while playing the part of three different characters. A great evening of magic was enjoyed by all. Hats off to all the members who worked very hard to bring this event together. Special thanks go to Larry and Sherree Skorepa, Keith Smith and Dave Snetsinger.

November's meeting will be a teach-in. There will be 5 stations, with 5 different instructors teaching 5 different things. The audience will move from station to station, receiving playing cards that will be used at the end of the evening to win some valuable prizes. It is shaping up to be a fun and informative evening.
